

ST. MATTHEW'S

The Anglican Church in the Glebe

Eighth Sunday after Pentecost
July 31, 2022

Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Matthew 5: 3

WELCOME TO ST. MATTHEW'S

St. Matthew's is a vibrant Christian community that welcomes everyone, embraces inspiring worship and learning and is committed to hospitality and loving service.

Prelude: "Carlisle"

THE GATHERING OF THE COMMUNITY

We worship this morning upon the traditional and unceded territory of the Algonquin Anishnaabeg people. May we live upon this land in peace, truth and love.

The Gathering of the Community

Hymn of Praise: 381 Praise, My Soul

Praise, My Soul

Collect of the Day

Almighty God, your Son Jesus Christ fed the hungry with the bread of his life and the word of his kingdom. Renew your people with your heavenly grace, and in all our weakness sustain us by your true and living bread, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

THE PROCLAMATION OF THE WORD

First Reading: Hosea 11:1-11

When Israel was a child, I loved him, and out of Egypt I called my son. The more I called them, the more they went from me; they kept sacrificing to the Baals and offering incense to idols. Yet it was I who taught Ephraim to walk; I took them up in my arms, but they did not know that I healed them. I led them with cords of human kindness, with bands of love. I was to them like those who lift infants to their cheeks. I bent down to them and fed them. They shall return to the land of Egypt, and Assyria shall be their king, because they have refused to return to me. The sword rages in their cities; it consumes their oracle priests and devours because of their schemes. My people are bent on turning away from me. To the Most High they call, but he does not raise them up at all. How can I give you up, Ephraim? How can I hand you over, O Israel? How can I make you like Admah? How can I treat you like Zeboiim? My heart recoils within me; my compassion grows warm and tender. I will not execute my fierce anger; I will not again destroy Ephraim, for I am God and no mortal, the Holy One in your midst, and I will not come in wrath. They shall go after the LORD, who roars like a lion; when he roars, his children shall come trembling from the west. They shall come trembling like birds from Egypt and like doves from the land of Assyria, and I will return them to their homes, says the LORD.

Psalm 107: 1-9, 43

Tone I.2

Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good, and his mercy endures for ever.

Let all those whom the Lord has redeemed proclaim that he redeemed them from the hand of the foe.

He gathered them out of the lands; from the east and from the west, from the north and from the south.

Some wandered in desert wastes; they found no way to a city where they might dwell.

They were hungry and thirsty; their spirits languished within them.

Then they cried to the Lord in their trouble and he delivered them from their distress.

He put their feet on a straight path to go to a city where they might dwell.

Let them give thanks to the Lord for his mercy and the wonders he does for his children.

For he satisfies the thirsty and fills thy hungry with good things.

Whoever is wise will ponder these things, and consider well the mercies of the Lord.

Second Reading: Colossians 3: 1-11

So if you have been raised with Christ, seek the things that are above, where Christ is, seated at the right hand of God. Set your minds on the things that are above, not on the things that are on earth, for you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. When Christ who is your life is revealed, then you also will be revealed with him in glory. Put to death, therefore, whatever in you is earthly: sexual immorality, impurity, passion, evil desire, and greed (which is idolatry). On account of these the wrath of God is coming on those who are disobedient.

These are the ways you also once followed, when you were living that life. But now you must get rid of all such things: anger, wrath, malice, slander, and abusive^[d] language from your mouth. Do not lie to one another, seeing that you have stripped off the old self with its practices and have clothed yourselves with the new self, which is being renewed in knowledge according to the image of its creator. In that renewal there is no longer Greek and Jew, circumcised and uncircumcised, barbarian, Scythian, enslaved and free, but Christ is all and in all!

Gospel Alleluia: 711

The Gospel: Luke 12: 13-21

Someone in the crowd said to him, "Teacher, tell my brother to divide the family inheritance with me." But he said to him, "Friend, who set me to be a judge or arbitrator over you?" And he said to them, "Take care! Be on your guard against all kinds of greed, for one's life does not consist in the abundance of possessions.” Then he told them a parable: “The land of a rich man produced abundantly. And he thought to himself, ‘What should I do, for I have no place to store my crops?’ Then he said, ‘I will do this: I will pull down my barns and build larger ones, and there I will store all my grain and my goods. And I will say to my soul, Soul, you have ample goods laid up for many years; relax, eat, drink, be merry.’ But God said to him, ‘You fool! This very night your life is being demanded of you. And the things you have prepared, whose will they be?’ So it is with those who store up treasures for themselves but are not rich toward God.”

Announcements

New! St. Matthew's Scarf and Jewelry Sale: We are seeking donations for the St. Matthew's Scarf and Jewelry sale which will be held on Sunday, December 4, 2022. Due to COVID, this is our first sale since 2019. Please leave your donations in the box located outside the church administration office. Donations of scarves, shawls, costume jewelry, hats, gloves, and purses are requested. We have found that bow ties, ties and vintage evening bags are hot sellers. If you have any questions, please contact Pam Mackenzie at pamela@mackenzie.org or (613) 695-2808. Please help make this sale a big success. Thank you.

Masking Guidelines: We have created a special section at the front of the church for the immuno-compromised folks in our midst. In this section, folks are required to wear exclusively N-95 masks at all times, and be socially distanced between households. Anyone is free to use this section, as long as these rules are followed.

In the remainder of the church, including the chancel, parishioners may remove their masks while in the pews.

While moving about the space, including entering, exiting, and moving to receive communion, parishioners will put their masks back on. This is to ensure everyone is safe while we move through sometimes crowded hallways and doorways, and past our protected special section.

In the chapel, masks will continue to be worn due to the size of the space.

Online Sunday Service: St. Matthews is live streaming our Sunday Worship Service. The link to this service is: https://youtube.com/channel/UCRKL_pwbbZ_FN2YFPAVdG1g/live You can watch it live or view it at a later date.

Wednesday Bible Study: Rev. Geoff will be hosting a Bible Study over Zoom on Wednesdays at 12:00pm for one hour. Both parishes are invited to join the zoom call. The focus of the discussion will be the gospel reading for the upcoming week.
